

The Shehaqua Morning News

The Voice of the Family Camp @ Shehaqua

Upcoming Activities:

Family Fall Festival & Harvest Moon Hoedown Sept. 19-20 at Shehaqua

This will be a weekend of fun, dancing, eating and family time. The main event will be Saturday with educational programs in the morning, activities in the afternoon and a camp fire and square dance in the evening.

Re-Charge & Take Charge Guided Discussions-Sat, Sept. 19

Starting the school year off right, with God by your side is the goal of these educational programs. Guided discussions, lead by skilled presenters will permit all participants to listen, be heard and come away with a plan for your school year.

Special Meetings-Sat., Sept. 19

Intentional Communities

In this era of settlement, we will consider and discuss co-housing and more permanent communities that can enhance our life and faith and that of our families. For more information on this, contact Sue Stoia at 302-250-6366 or 302-791-0246.

Camp De-Briefing Meetings

Organizations learn by making plans and then evaluating what worked and what did not. To participate in this session, bring your thoughts, ideas and positive attitude. Over the years, these meetings have significantly improved every aspect of our programs.

Want to host a special meeting of your own? Contact Rob Sayre about this at 484-707-4529.

For those who can help setup on Friday or close down on Sunday morning, we provide discounted fees for the weekend, Call Rob Sayre about this at 610-298-2439.

If you can help the cook in the kitchen we will also provide discounted fees. Call Elke Noll about this at 845-477-0767.
